Dear sir / madam

This is in continuation to this Board's letter dated 02.06.2022. The Nursing Counseling Board reviewed the status of seats remaining vacant in M.Sc Nursing course after round 2 of the allotment process.

Admissions on the vacant seats, drop-out seats (allotted but not reported) and management quota seats, if any, shall be filled at your own, by 21.06.2022, (giving preference to the candidate of the same category as that of the seat falling vacant) in order of merit in a transparent manner ensuring eligibility criteria as mentioned in the information booklet 2021 and other criteria as communicated.

Following criteria is to be followed for giving preference (in the following order) to candidates while giving admission on the seats remaining vacant, if any:

1. Candidates who have paid counseling fee of Rs. 550
2. Candidates who appeared in the RUHS Nursing Entrance Test 2021
3. Other candidates

(candidates approaching your college for admission are to be asked for submitting relevant documentary evidence in support of above criteria 1 or 2)

Through college login, option to enter details of all the candidates admitted by concerned colleges (direct admission / admission on management quota seats) shall soon be available at the college portal.

Ensure anti ragging measures at your college as per the directions of the statutory bodies and Hon'ble Supreme Court.

With regards

Chairman
Nursing Counseling Board 2021
