Office- Order

The State Board has associated interns for a period of one year at Head Office and Regional Offices under its Young Intern Policy – 2016.

In order to effectively implement this programme, following procedure is being laid upon regarding this internship at the State Board:-

- Interns selected under the Young Intern Policy-2016 of RSPCB, may be allowed to assist the Group In-charges/ Regional officers/ other technical and scientific staff of the Board in processing of note sheet and files. However, the interns should put up the files to the concerned technical/ scientific officers and not directly to the Group In-charges/ Regional officers.
- The services of the interns may be used in inventorization of the industries in the Regional offices. They may also assist in inspection/ verification of industries /field visits along with Board officials.
- All Group In-charges/ Regional officers are advised to provide hands on training to the interns working under their supervision.

This bears approval of the competent authority.
