- (ii) The hire-purchaser shall pay 20% of the cost of the shed as is fixed by the Corporation in the manner prescribed in the schedule as first Instalment in advance and the remaining amount alongwith interest @ 6% per annum shall be payable in 15 equal annual instalments. Each instalment shall fall due on the first day of twelfth month from the date on which possession of shed allotted on hire purchase basis was given to the hire-purchaser. The Corporation may on the application of the hire-purchaser extend this period upto two months in hard case for reasons to be recorded in writing.
- (iii) in case failure to pay any instalment on due date, the Corporation shall have a right to terminate the contract of hire-purchase by serving one month's notice and in that case the shed shall be treated on lease basis according to rule 10 above;

Provided that in case the instalment due is paid within the period of notice such period shall be treated as a further extension over and above the two month's extension referred to in clause (ii) above and a penal interest @ 9% per annum shall be charged on the amount of over due instalments for the entire period for which default has been made;

- (iv) The hire-purchaser shall not sub-let, under-let, mortgage or otherwise alienate or transfer or part with the possession of the shed or any right or interest therein till all the hire-purchase instalments have been paid except as provided hereunder :—

- (1) The shed can be transferred within a period of ten years from the date of commencement of hire purchase with the prior approval of the Corporation in writing and on payment in lump sum of twice the cost of the shed, recoverable on hire purchase basis or the market value of the shed (to be determined in consultation with the state Public Works Department or any other appropriate authority of the Government), whichever is higher. The instalments already paid will be adjusted against this amount.

- (2) The shed can be transferred after ten years from the date of hire-purchase, with the prior permission of the Corporation, in writing and on payment in lump sum the remaining instalments;
- (v) the shed shall be used for setting up a small scale industry for which it is allotted by the Corporation and for no other purpose except with the previous permission of the Corporation in writing;
- (vi) the hire-purchaser shall keep the shed in a condition of good repairs. In the event of his failure to do so, the Corporation shall get it repaired and recover the cost of repairs from the hire-purchaser;
- (vii) till all the instalments towards the hire-purchase price of the shed are paid, the hire-purchaser shall keep the shed insured with any Insurance Company, in the name of Corporation against loss or damage by fire and all other risks as the Corporation may require in such sum as is equivalent to the cost of the shed, and shall deposit with the Corporation all such insurance policies and receipts for payment of the premiums in respect of the same;
- (viii) the production in the said shed shall be started within a period of six month from the date on which the possession is delivered. The Corporation may, however, at its option, extend the time limit upto a maximum period of three months for reasons to be recorded in writing :
- (ix) the hire-purchaser shall execute an agreement, in Form IE (8);
- (x) the hire-purchaser shall not carry out any additions and alterations to the main shed and building without the approval of the Corporation.
- (xi) in case the hire-purchaser suspends or closes running of the industry in the shed at any time for a period exceeding six months, the Corporation shall terminate the allotment by giving one month's notice and resume the possession of the shed;
- (xii) Breach of any of the above conditions shall entitle the Corporation to terminate the allotment by giving one month's notice and to resume the possession of the shed thereafter.
- (xiii) Clause (xiii) deleted vide notification No. 26 (18) Ind/A/65 dated 12-6-1970.

11. A. Conversion of existing lease basis sheds into Hire-Purchase basis :—

- (i) The lessee to whom a shed has been allotted on lease basis may option for hire-purchase of shed in Form No. IE (9) within a period of three months from the date of publication of these rule in the official gazette, irrespective of the fact that he has already given option under the existing rules, on acceptance of option for hire-purchase basis, the amount of rent paid by him under the lease for the period subsequent to the date of his option shall be adjusted towards the initial instalment of 20% of the cost of the shed and the annual hire-purchase instalments.
- (ii) After adjustment of the amount of rent towards the initial instalment of 20% and instalments, if there is any shortfall, such amount shall be paid by the lessee a period of 2 months from the date of demand made by the Corporation.
- (iii) In case where the option has been accepted by the Corporation the allotment on hire-purchase basis shall be deemed to have come into force from the date, the hire-purchaser desired the option to be enforced in form IE (9) and the period of 15 years during which the entire cost of the shed is to be paid shall be determined from that date.
- (iv) Other conditions will be the same as mentioned in rule 11 above, provided however, that the agreement shall be executed in Form No. IE-(11).

11. B. Hire purchase of sheds by those who fail to give options :—

The lessee who fails to exercise option under rule 11-A may also at any time during the period of lease apply for hire purchase of sheds under rule 11 above. In this case no credit of lease money already paid shall be given.
